

Handwritten text, possibly a name or title, written vertically on the right side of the page.

Oct 1913. Found 1914

October 3rd, 1913

Chancellor Bowles,
Victoria College.

My dear Chancellor:

There was really no need of your making any reference of the absence of the members of your staff from the opening address to the students on Tuesday. While I regard it as desirable that as many of the staff as possible should be present in order to give dignity to the opening of the session and to support me in speaking to the students, it is entirely a matter of personal convenience, and I assured that your people were busy in the duties of the opening of the session.

I felt that we could not let the occasion pass without acknowledging in a few words of appreciation the great service that Dr. Burwash had done to the University.

Yours sincerely,

President.

November 5th, 1913

Dr. Bowles,

Victoria College.

Dear Dr. Bowles:

We are hoping to have President Hitch as our guest on Sunday, but so far I have not received any word from him as to the time of his arrival. He may not reach here until Sunday morning. However, I will let you know as soon as I hear from him. In all probability if he arrives in time President Hitch would be glad to accept your invitation for Saturday night.

I should also be glad to go were it not that Mrs. Falconer and I are to be at home for the staff that afternoon, and it may be difficult for me to get away in time for the dinner.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

March 7th, 1914

Chancellor Bowles,

Victoria College,

Toronto.

Dear Chancellor Bowles:

We have no opening in the University itself such as Miss Macdonald could fill. I told her, however, I was sending her letter to you as possibly you might know of something.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.